Irvin Johnson

Irvin “Irv” was born on September 16th, 1926 to Ellef and Helen (Tryggestad) Johnson, their only child. Irv went to Nottingham Country School for grade school and completed his schooling at Viroqua High School. After high school, Irv joined the Navy and the Great Lakes Blue Jacket Choir, where he was an active service member from 1944-1946. When Irv had completed his military service, he started his career at Trane Company and began building connections with his local church. In July of 1948, Irv married Dora and they began their family. Together Irv and Dora had three children (7-grandchildren, 4-great grandchildren, and 1- on the way), and were together for 70 years. Throughout their 70 years together, Irv worked at Trane Company and was offered wonderful travel opportunities before he retired on January 1st, 1987. Retirement brought great opportunities and some of the best times in Irv’s life, as he started to volunteer at Sugar Creek Bible Camp, RSVP, and taught Sunday school. Now, Irv enjoys watching birds (Eagles, especially), spending time with his family, and staying connected with his faith. Irv states, “God has been so good to me, and I have a lot to be thankful for.”

Hair

The wind lifted me
up into the trees,
where I danced
to the rhythm
of the evergreen,
swaying to the tune
of the northern breeze, frozen in timeless melody.
